Piano Prodigy Colton Peltier

Eleven-year-old Colton Peltier began studying piano at the age of three. This past summer, Colton was selected from among Minnesota's finest musicians as the FIRST EVER Minnesota Idol, where he performed the 1st movement of Beethoven's 1st Concerto with the Minnesota Orchestra. Colton performed eight concerts with the St. Paul Chamber Orchestra at age nine, making him the youngest person ever to have soloed with them.

On Friday, June 23rd, Colton will be featured at Allegro Con Brio's "All That Jazz" concert festival at Wayzata Community Church at 8 p.m. Also on the program is local jazz singer Connie Evingson performing "All That Jazz" from Chicago and Gershwin's "They All Laughed" from Shall We Dance.

Tickets are available at the door or by clicking here.
