5th Annual Family Concert of Allegro Sinfonia

Video

The 5th Annual Family Concert of Allegro Sinfonia brings together some of the best musical talents in the state. The artists will be performing several short, famous marches by various composers. The event will also feature 10-year-old violinist Jason Shu.

Allegro Sinfonia presents high quality, free orchestra concerts throughout the year to those in the western suburbs and beyond. Its members are accomplished musicians from throughout the Twin Cities who donate their time and talent.

The Allegro Sinfonia "March Madness" Concert is Sunday, October 7 at 3 p.m. at Wayzata Community

Church. Admission is free.
